

VIRGINIA STATE BAR LETTER

To: Virginia State Bar 7/8/11
From: Donna Hackman
Re: Marsha Leigh Garst

Hello,

You responded to my letter in regards to investigating misconduct of Marsha Garst. You stated you would not investigate because my complaint was upon evidence at my trial.

On 7/6/11 Ms. Garst contacted Doc and had me removed from the honor wing. She stated in the Daily News record, 7/6/11 she would contact the warden and have me removed. She stated it was a "travesty of justice for someone to commit such a heinous crime and be rewarded".

I was wrongfully convicted and sentenced to Die here, How can she ethically be allowed to intervene and take away privileges and programs I earned for my good behavior?

No prosecutor should be able to take away anything from an inmate but the inmate themselves.
Is this illegal?
